"A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE"

PRESS RELEASE

ENJOY TRADITIONAL IRISH MUSIC IN THE LIBRARY

Watauga, Texas- The Watauga Public Library will host a performance by the Festival Chorus on Thursday, August 25th from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. This choral group is part of the North Texas School of Irish Music in Carrollton which offers music instruction to children and adults.

Traditional Irish music has a great appeal for those who love beautiful music. If you enjoy River dance, want to revel in all things Irish, or just want an enjoyable evening to remember, come and hear the lovely songs of the Festival Chorus.

This performance is free and fun for all ages.

More about the Festival Chorus

This is a collection of singers that perform traditional Irish songs. These are not the drinking songs you may hear in pubs, but rather beautiful Irish airs, and songs that are mostly sung in the Irish Language of Gaelic. Many of the songs are 200 to 500 years old. Their performances with Celtic Woman and the Irish Tenors drew rave reviews from audiences.

More about the North Texas School of Irish Music

The North Texas School of Irish Music is a 501(C)3 non-profit organization that is part of the School of Irish Music Inc. The school was formed to provide goals, structure, and performance opportunities for young people who are interested in learning Irish music. They also offer lessons for adults.
