"A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE"

PRESS RELEASE

History Comes to Life! Explore the Middle Ages.

Watauga, Texas- Join the Watauga Public Library on Saturday, August 1st from noon to 3:00 p.m. as we explore the Middle Ages.

Come see and learn about armor, swords, archery equipment, period clothing, crowns, jewelry, tools, pewter casting, weaving and more! Meet knights, archers, and ladies. Hear about what it was like to live during the Middle Ages.

Costumes are encouraged. Plus, there will be a craft for kids and kids at heart! This will be fun and fascinating for history lovers of all ages!

This program is provided courtesy of the Society for Creative Anachronism, an international organization dedicated to researching and re-creating the arts and skills of pre-17th-century Europe. The SCA is a world-wide organization that has been in existence since 1966. Visit their website for more information about the organization: <http://welcome.sca.org/about/>

This event is free, and all are welcome. Call 817.514.5865 for more information.
