"A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE"

PRESS RELEASE

ENJOY BEAUTIFUL HARP MUSIC LIVE IN THE LIBRARY

Watauga, Texas- The Watauga Public Library will be hosting a performance by the local group HarpEssence on Thursday, November 5th from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Five talented musicians perform in HarpEssence under the direction of Susan Koskelin, including Stan Guy, Grace Johnson, Linda Mudd, and Joan McCord. The group plays various venues throughout the metroplex including weddings, church services, private parties, and corporate events, just to name a few.

Join us for the lovely and soothing sounds of HarpEssence followed by a question-and-answer session. Kids can even come up at the end of the show and touch the harps! Fun for all ages. This event is free, and all are welcome!

For more information, call 817.514.5865, or stop by the Watauga Public Library at 7109 Whitley Road in Watauga.
